

2019 Speaking Engagements

January 19, 2019

Moderator, The Coloring of Law and Punishment panel at 2:00 p.m. in the UNH Law Rudman Center. The event is in partnership with The Black Heritage Trail of NH and NH Humanities. This event is a conversation about the consequences of incarceration on New Hampshire communities of color.

February 1-4, 2019

- Satoshi Roundtable

February 5, 2019

- Panelist, Women in Blockchain Event (Boston Chapter): Blockchain 101 Across Industries with networking opportunity to follow.

February 22, 2019

- Panelist, Wayne State Law Review Symposium: "The Emerging Blockchain and the Law" (with essay to follow, The Role of International Rules in Blockchain-Based Cross-Border Disputes) (Detroit, MI). Other panelists include Professors Aaron Wright and Carla Reyes.

February 28, 2019

- "The Art of the Startup", sponsored by StartOut-Boston, which connects and educates LGBTQ entrepreneurs to empower great leaders and businesses. Register now (6:00-9:30, for panel and networking opportunity).

March 6, 2019

- Organizer and Panelist, South by Southwest EDU (Austin, TX): Educating Educators about Blockchain

March 16, 2019

- Organizer and Panelist, South by Southwest (Austin, TX): IP, Brand and Blockchain: Business on the Block

March 28, 2019

- Panelist, Cardozo Arts & Entertainment Law Journal Spring 2019 Symposium: Digital Art. Professor Evans will join a panel that explores and critiques how blockchain art and digital collectibles have changed art law (essay that extends her work in Cryptokitties, Cryptography and Copyright to follow).

April 5-6, 2019

- Panelist, Seton Hall University Law School's Institute for Privacy Protection Spring Conference, Privacy Power, & Ethics. Professor Evans will present "Public Records, Privacy & Security on the Blockchain: Ethical Considerations of Web 3.0". In this presentation, Professor Evans will explore the benefits of blockchains as a tamper-resistant, censorship-resistant, public repository for public record data and other types of authentic and certified information and promising governmental use cases that, despite their promise, implicate privacy and security concerns.

April 12, 2019

- Moderator & Panelist, Howard University School of Law Sesquicentennial to commemorate 150 years of "Leading the Fight for Social Justice". Panel: Howard Law Outside the Law.

April 24-25, 2019

- Nominee, Enterprise Blockchain "Ecosystem Leadership" Award (Toronto, Canada). Honoring the foremost thinkers, leaders, and builders in enterprise blockchain technology, the Enterprise Blockchain Awards (EBA) has unveiled its shortlist in four categories. Professor Evans on her category and was presented her award at the EBA Gala Dinner on April 24th in Toronto, which assembled the brightest and best of the international community to celebrate both their collective achievements and future opportunities.

May 3, 2019 | 8:30 am – 4:30 pm EST

- Speaker, HUE Tech Summit (Phila. PA). In keeping with the HUE "No More Hidden Figures" mantra, the 2019 theme for the summit is one word: FORTITUDE.

May 10-11, 2019

- Ethereal Summit-NYC (Brooklyn-TBC)

May 13, 2019

- Consensus NYC 2019
- Panelist, Black Blockchain-NYC Fireside Chat

June 14, 2019

- Presenter, Lesbians Who Tech & Allies Boston Leadership Forum Roadshow. Professor Evans will present on intellectual property issues in the blockchain space. In partnership with Google, this summer LWT is hosting Leadership Forums in Austin, Boston and Seattle for LGBTQ women, trans and gender nonconforming individuals, LGBTQ people of color, and demographics that are underrepresented in the tech sector and LGBTQ spaces. The Leadership Forums are invite-only and bring together accomplished local leaders for an intimate conference focused on both technology trends and focuses on a more curated experience for mid-level and executive members.

June 19-23, 2019

- Presenter, 13th Annual Lutie Lytle Workshop & Writing Retreat. This year's host is Penn State Law.

July 24, 2019

- Presenter, Association of American Law Schools Blockchain Webinar: Educating Law Professors about Blockchain

September 9-11, 2019

- Attendee, Lesbians Who Tech & Allies New York Leadership Summit 2019

September 30, 2019

- Speaker, Voice of Blockchain (Chicago, IL)

October 8-9, 2019

- Speaker, IBM Cloud & Cognitive Innovation Forum (VIP C-Suite attendees, invitation only) (Rancho Palos Verdes, CA)

October 27-30, 2019

- Speaker, "Use of Works in the Digital Era" at the ASIFI Conference (Lima, Peru)

December 3, 2019

Presenter, Practising Law Institute (PLI): Patenting Blockchain and Distributed Ledger Technologies 2019